New Family Dental Practice Opens in Orlando DellagioDentist.com Opened April 8

ORLANDO, Fla. – James Trantham, DMD, is pleased to announce the opening of his new dental practice, DellagioDentist.com, a new, full-service, family dental practice in Orlando. This new dental practice, located at 7940 Via Dellagio Way, officially opened April 8.

Dr. Trantham and his dental team offer general, comprehensive dentistry for the entire family. Services provided include exams, cleanings, X-rays, fluoride, sealants, laser-assisted cavity detection, and ViziLite Plus oral cancer screenings. Dr. Trantham also offers tooth-colored fillings, crowns, bridges, veneers, endodontics, oral surgery, dental implants, Invisalign invisible braces, and Zoom! in-office tooth whitening.

“At Dellagio we are excited to offer the latest dental technology and techniques to our patients and their entire families,” said Dr. Trantham. “I am proud to open a state-of-the-art dental practice to serve the families in the Orlando area.”

Dr. Trantham earned his dental degree from the University of Florida College of Dentistry in Gainesville. He earned his undergraduate degree in nutritional science from the University of Florida as well. In addition to his formal education, Dr. Trantham continues to seek out advanced training courses in a wide range of dental issues and techniques to better serve his patients.

New patients are welcome and appointments are now available. Appointments can be
